The Dynamex Decision How it Affects Your Project

Dynamex Operations West, Inc.
v.
Superior Court of Los Angeles

On April 30, the California Supreme Court issued a massive decision that replaces the Borello test for wage and hour claims with a new standard—the “ABC Test”—which creates a more difficult burden for businesses to overcome the presumption that a worker is an independent contractor. Your current 1099, independent personnel serving your project will now be reclassified as employees impacting negotiated rates and the available skilled workforce.
