Mindful Leadership in a World of Virtual Relationships

Tuesday, May 18, 2021 • 8:30am- 9:30am • Virtual Link to be Provided

PROGRAM SUMMARY

In this session, John Scherck will interview industry experts in mindful leadership, Dan Stover and Jules Elving, on becoming maximally effective as managers in the hybrid work environment. Under normal conditions, leaders are challenged with balancing results and relationships, which is more complex in the digital meetings many of us are hosting. Dan and Jules will address how to strike this balance of accountability and relating in a practical way that is applicable to engineers, project managers and senior leaders.
